Randall:

The undersigned are counsel of record for the South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs in the above-referenced Docket. We have encountered scheduling difficulties for our Witnesses of Record in this Docket. These scheduling difficulties that will incur additional costs that are payable by South Carolina taxpayers and Carri Lybarker, Esquire, as a good steward of the tax dollars, makes the following two requests.

REQUEST 1: Because of scheduling difficulties, we request that our Witness Jerome Mierzwa be allowed to testify, by way of video link; and REQUEST 2: That our Witnesses, Lafayette K. Morgan, Aaron L. Rothschild and Jereom Mierzwa be allowed to testify on a date certain, anytime on Thursday, February 27, 2020. To clarify, Witness Morgan and Witness Rothschild will appear in person, to testify as a Panel.

Because these two requests will save considerable taxpayer funds, we request the approval of these two requests and this email is,

Respectfully Submitted,

Richard Whitt,

Carri Lybarker,
Becky Dover,
Roger Hall,

All as Counsel for the South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs.
